

VINCERE

A 90-DAY FIELD MANUAL

FINISH STRONG

For the man who refuses to drift into January.

RENATUS VINCERE · REBORN TO WIN

MATT VINCENT WALKER

START HERE

You have 90 days left in the year. That is enough time to change how this year ends and how the next one begins.

Most men do not fall. They drift. They coast through the last quarter and tell themselves January is the reset. That is the Resistance talking, the voice that says not yet. The men who win use these 90 days to build while everyone else waits.

This field manual takes 90 minutes. Block the time, close the door, and work it start to finish.

	STEP	WHAT YOU DO	TIME
I	Assess	Score yourself honestly across six areas of life	20 min
II	Focus	Choose one Finish Line goal and what you will stop doing	15 min
III	Plan	Break the goal into a 90-day sprint	30 min
IV	Rhythm	Set the daily and weekly cadence that keeps you on track	10 min
V	AI Boost	Use AI to pressure-test and sharpen your plan	15 min

You walk away with an honest picture of where you stand, one goal worth chasing, a week-by-week plan to December 31, and a simple rhythm to stay on it.

THE DOCTRINE

Order comes before peace, and peace before power. This manual follows the same order.

I

ORDER

Face the truth, choose one goal, and build the plan.

II

PEACE

Cut what drains you and live inside a steady rhythm.

III

POWER

Stop restarting. Stay with it for 90 days and let it compound.

ASSESS

You cannot fix what you will not face. Score each area from 1 (broken) to 10 (dialed in). Go with your gut.

AREA	SCORE	BIGGEST WIN THIS YEAR	BIGGEST GAP NOW
Business & revenue Am I on pace for my number? Is my pipeline full?
Body & energy Do I have the energy to lead at work and at home?
Marriage & family Would my wife and kids say I've been present?
Mind & focus Am I running my day, or is my day running me?
Faith & purpose Do I know why I'm doing all this, and does it show?
Systems & time Are my tools, habits and team working for me or against me?
Total	/ 60

READ YOUR SCORE

- 48–60, Strong. You are aligned. Use these 90 days to push one big lever.
- 36–47, Solid but leaking. One or two areas are dragging the rest. Fix the drag first.
- 24–35, Stretched thin. You are working hard, not aligned. Simplify before you add anything.
- Under 24, Running on fumes. This season is about stabilizing, not scaling. That is still a win.

Find your leak. Circle your lowest score. That area is costing you more than you think, because a low score in one area drains every other one.

THREE HONEST QUESTIONS

1. What am I proudest of this year?

2. What am I avoiding that I know I need to deal with?

3. If this year ended today, what would I regret?

FOCUS

You do not need ten goals. You need one Finish Line goal that, if you hit it, makes this year a win.

Choose your Finish Line goal. Start with your leak from Step I, or with the one business result that would change everything. It must pass all four tests:

- ☐ Specific. A number or a clear yes/no, like “$30K in new contracts signed,” not “grow the business.”
- ☐ Doable in 90 days. It is a stretch, but you can hit it by December 31.
- ☐ In my control. It depends on my actions, not luck.
- ☐ Worth it. Hitting it would move at least two of my six areas.

By December 31, I will _____

Why it matters _____

NOW CUT

Winning these 90 days is as much about what you stop as what you start. Name three things you will quit, delegate or refuse until January 1.

I AM STOPPING

WHAT IT FREES UP

Common ones: low-margin jobs, late-night scrolling, meetings with no outcome, chasing every lead, admin a tool could handle.

PLAN

A goal without a plan is a wish. Break your Finish Line goal into three 30-day phases, then one target per week. Work backward, and plan the holiday weeks light now.

PHASE	DAYS	FOCUS	WHERE I NEED TO BE BY THE END
Build	Days 1–30 Oct 2 – Oct 31	Set up, start fast, early wins
Push	Days 31–60 Nov 1 – Nov 30	Peak effort and volume
Finish	Days 61–90 Dec 1 – Dec 31	Close it out, set up January

NAME THE RESISTANCE

The Resistance does not need to defeat you outright. It only needs you to keep waiting. Name the two things most likely to derail you, and decide now what you will do when they show up.

IF THIS HAPPENS...	I WILL...

Example. Finish Line goal: “Sign $30K in new work by December 31.” Build: 40 past customers contacted and 10 estimates out. Push: 6 jobs signed. Finish: the remaining 2–3 jobs closed and the January pipeline loaded.

WEEKLY TARGETS

Each target is one result you can check off by the end of the week. Plan the holiday weeks light.

RHYTHM

Plans fail on Tuesday, not on paper. A simple rhythm keeps you moving when motivation fades.

DAILY: THE 3-3-1

- 3 minutes in the morning. Pick the one move that pushes your goal today, and do it before email.
- 3 minutes at night. Ask whether you did it, and set tomorrow's move.
- 1 non-negotiable. One habit you protect no matter what: a workout, prayer, dinner with your family.

My daily non-negotiable _____

WEEKLY: THE FRIDAY 15

Every Friday, take 15 minutes: Did I hit this week's target? What worked, and what got in the way? What is next week's target? Which of my six areas got neglected?

My Friday 15 time _____

ACCOUNTABILITY

Men who tell someone their goal follow through. Choose one man. Send him your goal today and your Friday score each week.

My accountability partner _____

AI BOOST

AI is the business partner most men never use. Paste these prompts into ChatGPT or Claude, filling the brackets with your answers from Steps I–IV.

1 · PRESSURE-TEST THE PLAN

Act as a direct, no-nonsense business coach. Here is my 90-day plan to finish the year strong.

My work: [solopreneur / contractor, what I do]

My scores (1-10): Business [], Body [], Family [], Mind [], Faith [], Systems []

My Finish Line goal: [goal]

My weekly targets: [paste Step III]

Tell me the 3 biggest weaknesses in this plan, what I'm underestimating, and what you would change. Be blunt.

2 · FIND THE SHORTCUT

My Finish Line goal is [goal]. These are the 5 tasks that eat the most time in my week: [list them].

For each, tell me how I could automate, delegate or eliminate it using AI or simple tools I can set up in under an hour.

3 · BUILD THIS WEEK'S GAME PLAN

This week's target is [target]. I have about [X] hours of focused time.

Break it into a day-by-day plan for Monday through Friday, with the single most important action first each day.

4 · THE FRIDAY 15 DEBRIEF

Here's my week: target was [target], result was [result], what got in the way: [obstacles].

Ask me 3 hard questions, then suggest next week's target based on where I am against my Finish Line goal.

THE NEXT 24 HOURS

YOUR NEXT MOVE

You now have what most men never write down: an honest score, one goal, a 90-day plan and a rhythm to keep you on it. Do these three things in the next 24 hours:

- ☐ Send your Finish Line goal to your accountability partner.
- ☐ Put your Friday 15 on the calendar for every week until December 31.
- ☐ Do Week 1's first move tomorrow morning, before email.
